

Friday's hit song dream

TYLDESLEY'S Friday Brown who appears regularly on the BBC-1 Tuesday night show "Wait While..." is more than just a singer of songs. She writes them, too.

So far, though, she has discarded most of her efforts because she has been advised that they are not quite her personal cup of tea.

"One of these days," says 24-years-old Friday, of Bodmin Road, Tyldesley. "I shall record one of them. It would be nice to see it climb into the Top Twenty, wouldn't it? A song of your own."

Meantime she will just have to be content to be in demand as a singer all over Europe.

She is, by the way, very well known behind the Iron Curtain. Last year she won the Polish Song Festival.

So far this year she has been invited to sing in Poland, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria.