

To-night's Radio

Jack Warner Starred In Variety Show

HOME SERVICE

(293m., 391m., and 449m.)

- 7.29—Children: Concert party, with Gordon Glenn (accordion), Roy Burgess and Desmond Bristow (piano and drums), Peter Groves (cornet), Brian Wright (xylophone and musical saw).
- 8.0—Time and News: National and Regional announcements.
- 8.30—News in Norwegian
- 8.45—The orchestra entertains B.B.C. Orchestra.
- 7.15—"In Town To-night."
- 7.45—The Week in Westminster: N. A. Beechman, M.P.
- 8.0—"Regimental Flash." The Royal Welch Fusiliers by P. H. Burton.
- 8.15—"Saturday Social," featuring Jack Warner, Billy Russell, Jeanne de Casilla, and Phyllis Roains, supported by well-known variety acts.
- 9.0—Time and News.
- 9.20—American Commentary, Raymond Gram Swing.
- 9.35—"Saturday at Nine-thirty-five." Music by Eric Coates.
- 10.15—Shortened form of Evensong.
- 10.30—"The Rape of the Locks." Comedy by Menander, with the gaps in the play conjecturally filled by Gilbert Murray, who introduces the play. Produced by Barbara Burdett.
- 11.20—Gerald and his Orchestra.
- 12.0 midnight-12.30 a.m.—Time; news.